WEBSITE: pinehilltexas.com

Please Note: No FAX or Phone entries. Entries will be accepted only when payment is received. Dressage only entries will have lowest priority for stabling. Highest Priority will be given to those entering the horse trial. Competitors who consistently provide volunteer help at our schooling shows will also be given preference over those who do not. We will be keeping track of competitors when they do not fulfill their volunteer requirement—see Rule #8 on next page. Failure to do so may result in your entry being rejected at future shows. Remember you may provide a substitute. NO REFUNDS for scratches made after 5:00 PM WEDNESDAY February 29, 2012. There is a $10 fee for changes made after Wednesday. Late entries accepted if room is available--$20 late fee applies.

All competitors are encouraged to be members of your local combined training association and The United States Eventing Association (USEA).

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Pine Hill Enterprises and the show management or its employees, or GHCTA will not be responsible for any loss or damage or injury to persons, horses or property. Each minor exhibitor must have parent, guardian or qualified instructor sign the release incorporated in the entry form. Each entrant is responsible for riding a properly conditioned horse in a safe manner. Management reserves the right to stop and eliminate unsafe riders or improperly conditioned horses. Entries that are eliminated during jumping phases for jumping penalties are required to leave the course and may not compete in any remaining jumping phase. Schooling under the supervision of a qualified instructor will be allowed after the conclusion of the competition upon notifying management. If the footing is good schooling the cross-country course on Saturday will be permitted. Horses not entered in all 3 phases (horse trial) for Sunday will pay the $25 schooling fee. Horses entered in all 3 phases (horse trial) pay no additional fee. However, horses entered in the horse trial must go Hors Concours (not for points or ribbons) on Sunday. Competitors are expected to notify management if they school on Saturday and should be listed as H.C. on the scoreboard at the start of the competition.

2. Properly fitting helmet with permanent harness & boots with heels required whenever mounted. Numbers must be worn and clearly visible.

3. Unless otherwise stipulated the competitions will be conducted in accordance with the rules of the United States Eventing Association as described in the current rule book.

4. Ribbons will be awarded through sixth place. Divisions with sufficient entries will be split into sections.

5. Entry fees are $55 for Combined Tests (dressage & stadium) and $70 for Horse Trials (dressage, stadium & cross country). Note discount for pre-registration. Any horse/rider combination may enter only one level of one competition. A single $10 grounds fee charge will be added to entries not stabled on grounds.

6. Lunch will be served from 11-2. Drinks and snacks will be available the rest of the day.

7. Stalls are available at $35 (Saturday night/Sunday only!) which includes the grounds fee. Horses arriving Friday will pay an additional $15 stabling and $25 schooling fee (if schooled) must specify on entry that you plan to arrive early. Stabling is limited to 79 stalls. Priority will be given to those entering the complete horse trial. Horses brought just for schooling purposes may be stabled only with permission from the show management. Please call ahead to determine if extra stalls are available and bring a current coggins. Tack stalls are not permitted. All horses stabled must have a stall voucher posted on their stall.

*8. By entering the competition the competitor agrees to jump judge or otherwise assist with the competition for approximately 1 hour. If you can't work it into your schedule please find a competent substitute to take your place. If everyone contributes a little time, no one will have to spend too much time helping.

9. Qualified and experienced EMT available during show. $5.00 Medic Fee
